

Hold On

When the night falls
over this heartland
and the stars rise
to the dark sky

Hear the whispers
in the distance
like a gateway
to a forgotten place

And the night birds
on their branches
fed with peaces
of your soul's light

See the shades dancing feel your heart beating (but) don't be frightened of your fi eld of dreams

Could the moonlight
take a lost heart
into (the) sunshine?

Hold on, Hold on to your love even in the dark of night I'll be there to shelter you

Let your thoughts fl y into the night sky
let them take your hand and show your way

Feel the sunlight -
an embracement
of eternity
from a greater love

Could the moonlight
take a lost heart
into the sunshine?

Hold on
hold on to your love
even in the dark of night
I'll be there to shelter you

Feel me
and don't you ever fear me find a way to hear me thoughts arrive like sparkles of eternity
