In the morning came the warning that you're on the road to nowhere in the morning came the dawning

In the nighttime you may hear them calling out from deep within you don't believe them – they might be lyin'
In the morning came the dawning showing you that love will clear the way

You can start every day like a new day's dawning walk with the night
to a bright day's morning everything you find everything you see is the shining sun

You can touch the divine with a tip of your finger over the clouds you can heavenly linger
everything you find
everything you see is the morning sun

You may talk or you may listen to the words you've been missin' can you hear them throughout the night?

See the stars – they're watching for you see them twinkling sparkling for you until dawning – outshines the night In the morning came the dawning
showing you that love will clear the way

everything you find

everything you find

Hear my calling in the morn' (like) dreams call for the break of dawn
